The engine since v11.291.10

- 6d31db3ce T-348: the first shop clerk spoken to while holding OPUS notices it (the user; DRAFT)

The design and tools since v11.291.10

- 53ca9ef8 T-348: a shop clerk notices OPUS -- reversed by the user; bible v11.292 (engine 6d31db3ce)
- d9ff4066 ROM release v11.291.9: the weekday from the date, not the clock chip's register (T-265)

A shop clerk notices OPUS (2026-10-03)

- Reversed by the user (T-348): "Nobody remarks on it, then or ever" no longer holds. The first shop clerk spoken to while the player holds OPUS notices it, says it writes a line under some INDEX entries and that SELECT turns the page, and hopes they enjoy it -- once, at whichever shop comes first. Who left it is still never answered. Built and released the same day.
- Since v11.291, all released: T-210's six batches (95 daemons named by type, written and drawn), the routines they brought in, EPIPHANY's line redrawn as a real animal, the 13 legends' myth names approved; T-265's weekday read from the date.
